EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

PRESENCE OF MIND PREVAILS: *Presence of mind and courage in distress are more than armies to procure success. —John Dryden

As the above quote aptly depicts, exhibiting presence of mind in critical situations is like wielding a weapon that can save us from disgrace. Taking sound decisions under pressure, with a calm mind, can go a long way toward tackling difficult circumstances.

Swami Vivekananda is a shining example in this regard. Here is an incident from his life that highlights this exemplary quality.

Once, a Christian missionary wanted to show his personal library to Swamiji, with the ulterior motive of demeaning his vision.

He asked Swami Vivekananda to comment on the order in which he had arranged the books in his library. Swamiji's eyes searched for the Srimad Bhagavad Gita. He found it at the bottom of the book rack, with several other religious books stacked above it.

Swamiji immediately applauded the missionary for the arrangement, leaving the latter bewildered. He explained that it was right on the missionary's part to have kept the Bhagavad Gita at the bottom, for if that book were removed, the position of all the other books would be shaken and they might topple and fall. Swamiji thanked him for giving due importance to the holy book, leaving the missionary dumbfounded. The missionary had expected Swamiji to pick up an argument, but with his presence of mind, Swamiji had averted a bitter situation.

One can cite several instances from our scriptures to highlight this admirable quality. Hanuman, with his extraordinary strength and unruffled calmness, displayed remarkable presence of mind when he decided to lift the Sanjeevani mountain to save the life of Lakshmana, who had fallen unconscious on the battlefield. But for Hanuman's quick thinking, Lakshmana's life would have been in grave danger.

Who can forget the well-known competition between Ganesha and Muruga to go around the world for the divine mango?

Ganesha, with his superior wisdom and presence of mind, won the fruit by simply circumambulating his parents and declaring them to be his entire world.

In conclusion, "It is by presence of mind in untried emergencies that the native metal of man is tested." This quote by the American poet James Russell Lowell says it all — that ultimately, the presence of mind prevails.

Man disguises as mother to collect pension

Borgo Virgilio: An Italian man is accused of pension fraud after being caught disguised as his deceased mother while trying to renew her ID card so he could continue collecting her pension.

Investigators believe that Graziella Dall'Oglio died of natural causes at the age of 82, in the town of Borgo Virgilio, close to the city of Mantua.

However, her son, whose name has not been revealed by the media, never declared her death, instead preserved her body in the family home and impersonated her for three years in order to continue receiving her pension. The 57-year old man now stands accused of pension fraud and concealing a dead body, among other charges.

Pension fraud is pretty common in Italy, with dozens of people arrested every year for impersonating someone who has died to collect their pension. However, some people go to incredible lengths in order to keep up appearances and the money flowing in.

Lapses in field-level traffic enforcement

Sir,

This is to bring to notice a serious breakdown in field-level traffic enforcement across Mysuru. At multiple traffic islands, Police personnel are routinely found parked on their motorcycles, scrolling through mobile phones instead of performing active junction management.

This is not a harmless lapse — it is a direct dereliction of core operational duties and a violation of fundamental enforcement protocols.

Modern intersection management demands uninterrupted visual scanning, conflict-point mapping, queue-length assessment, pedestrian-gap evaluation and rapid manual override whenever signal cycles fail. A distracted officer cannot perform even a fraction of these functions. As a result, lane discipline breaks down, pedestrian risk escalates and traffic congestion worsens.

What is worse, such scenes have become a subject of open public mockery. This ridicule severely damages the institutional credibility of the Police Department — credibility that sincere and hard-working officers have built through years of disciplined service.

The Police Department must enforce strict accountability: random supervisory inspections, duty-performance metrics, CCTV-based compliance scoring and zero-tolerance for mobile-phone misuse at junctions. Without systemic correction, Mysuru's traffic grid will continue to suffer avoidable failures.

Pay and Park at your health risk

Sewage, stench and stray dogs plague KSRTC Sub-Urban Bus Stand parking lot

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MK&BS)- The cellar parking lot at the KSRTC Sub-Urban Bus Stand on Mother Teresa Road has become a severe public health hazard, with commuters forced to navigate through overflowing sewage and unbearable stench.

Despite the daily plight of vehicle users, the authorities appear to have turned a blind eye to the pressing issue.

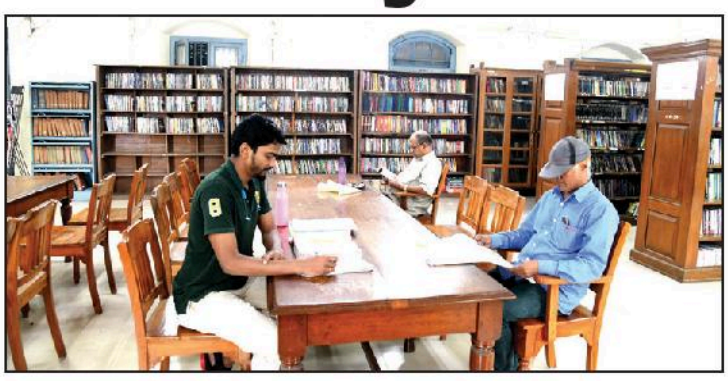
The unhygienic conditions are primarily caused by drain water overflowing from a manhole, which covers much of the parking surface. Commuters who use this paid facility from 5 am to 9 pm are forced to wade through the filthy water, holding their nostrils to avoid the foul smell.

The situation is particularly distressing for women travelling to attend weddings or other auspicious ceremonies in neat attire, who are caught off guard and must carefully navigate the area to avoid staining their clothes, all while worrying about missing their buses amidst the chaos.

The problem is compounded by the presence of stray dogs roaming in packs, raising safety concerns in light of recent reports of stray attacks. The structural design of the cellar, which sits below road level, exacerbates the issue during heavy rainfall. Locals fear the area could become inundated with knee-deep water, trapping both vehicles and their owners.

While commuters continue to pay parking charges without fail, they demand proper maintenance and cleanliness in return. Allegations are rife that KSRTC officials, though fully aware of the numerous complaints, have chosen to remain silent, leaving the public to bear the health risks of this neglected facility.

Publishers slam apathy as Library Cess goes unused



Mysuru, Nov. 28 (SPN&DM)- Despite public libraries across the State facing a severe funding crisis, writers and publishers have alleged that the Library Cess collected by local bodies is being misused.

According to N. Ravikumar, Secretary of the Karnataka State Publishers Association, the Department of Public Libraries has seen no progress despite a bureaucratic upgrade.

He explained that while the Department was previously headed by a Director, the State Government upgraded the post to the rank of Commissioner several years ago and began appointing IAS officers to the role.

Ravikumar highlighted that a 6 percent Library Cess is collected by the State's six City Corporations and the Greater Bengaluru Authority (GBA). However, due to technical issues, these funds cannot be deposited into the Department's centralised bank account.

"Several writers, intellectuals, and others met Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and School Education Minister Madhu Bangarappa last year regarding this issue," Ravikumar stated.

"Subsequently, both the Chief Minister and the Minister directed the Finance Department to take necessary action. But the Finance Department officials have not responded and even the Commissioner of Public Libraries appears to be showing no interest. As a result, the demands of publishers and writers remain unfulfilled," he said.

No initiative from IAS officers

He alleged that the IAS officers appointed as Commissioners have shown little initiative in developing libraries or even securing funds allotted to the Department.

Citing a specific example, he lamented that a Rs. 7 crore fund allotted in 2020 went unutilised and was returned to the Finance Department. Furthermore, the Department has shown negligible interest in purchasing 300 books recommended for bulk buying by the Book Selection Committee in 2022, 2023 and 2024.

Ravikumar asserted that this 'lackadaisical attitude' has caused financial losses to publishers and reiterated that the collected Library Cess is being diverted for other purposes.

He added that despite numerous representations made over the years to successive governments — under Chief Ministers B.S. Yediyurappa, Jagadish Shettar, D.V. Sadananda Gowda, H.D. Kumaraswamy and Siddaramaiah — regarding their three-point charter of demands, nothing has been achieved.

He squarely blamed official apathy for the ongoing troubles plaguing the public library system.

Sacred images get dignified disposal in clean-up drive

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (VNS)- City-based Team Mysuru conducted a campaign to collect and respectfully dispose of old, abandoned photos of various Gods and Goddesses placed at multiple locations across the city.

The team carried out the drive at Shivaji Park in N.R. Mohalla, where they gathered more than 200 portraits that had been left at the Aralikatte and other spots between 7 am and 10 pm.

Usable portraits were restored with new frames and handed back to the public, while damaged photos and idols were buried in a pit as per tradition, after which a sapling was planted at the site.

The initiative received strong public support and appreciation for addressing the improper disposal of sacred images.

Team Mysuru members Gokul Govardhan, Kiran, Jairam Gowda, Anil Jain, Hiriyanna, Shivaprasad, Manohar, Trimurthy, Varshini, Sahana, Uma and others took part in the drive.

Remodelled Vidyaranyapuram Compost Plant to start operations

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (RK&BS)- Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) is all set to process solid waste on its own at Sewage Farm in Vidyaranyapuram.

Vidyaranyapuram Compost Plant, a remodelled waste processing plant, that was until 2022 functioned as Excel Plant, will be operational from December.

The 200-tonne capacity Vidyaranyapuram Compost Plant, has been built under Swachh Bharat Mission, at an estimated cost of Rs. 10 crore. While Rs. 7.5 crore has been spent on civil works, Rs. 2.9 crore is spent on procurement and installation of machineries, said MCC Commissioner Shaikh Tanveer Asif.

MCC itself has set up the unit, while the workers have been outsourced through tender process. It was supposed to be functional two months back, but was delayed due to installation of machineries and other related works, added Asif.

Beginning from the year 1996 till 2022, Excel Industries Limited, headquartered in Mumbai, was running the waste processing plant of MCC, named as 'Excel Plant.' The compost produced out of waste, was being packed and sold in bags.

On the other hand, though the city generated an average of 400 tonnes to 450 tonnes of waste daily in its initial days, that has now touched 550 tonnes, the Excel Plant could handle only 200 metric tonnes of waste. The remaining waste was dumped across 17 acres of vacant plot in Sewage Farm, that accumulated into seven tonnes of legacy waste. Now, the works on clearing Legacy Waste is on, with Rs. 58 crore tender awarded to a Gujarat-based firm. The legacy waste is expected to be cleared by January 2026.

The earlier deadline was Mar. 31, 2021.

The Mysuru Development Authority will cancel the allotment of houses to such beneficiaries who fail to clear the pending instalments before the extended deadline of Dec. 31, 2026 and take possession of the houses of defaulters.

'Govt. consents to clear 14-month salary dues of KSRTC staff'

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (SPN&BS)- Joint Action Committee of Trade Unions, that had called for KSRTC employees protest today (Nov. 28) has decided to postpone its plans, as the State Government has consented to clear the pending salary arrears of KSRTC employees, due from Jan. 1, 2022 to Feb. 28, 2023.

The State Government came out with above assurance, at the meeting chaired by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah yesterday, along with Transport Minister R. Ramalinga Reddy and KSRTC officials, and attended by representatives of Centre for Indian Trade Union (CITU), KSRTC SC/ST Officers and Employees Welfare Association and office-bearers of KSRTC Employees Association.

It was urged to hand over the responsibility to take a call on dropping those proposals that may dent the welfare of State Government employees, clear the pending amount of 38 months and revising the salary applicable from Jan. 1,2024 among others, to Transport Minister and Managing Director of KSRTC.

The CM has also consented to the demands and the next meeting is scheduled under the Chairmanship of Transport Minister on Dec. 6. Till then, the Joint Action Committee of Trade Unions, has given a call to the Transport Department employees to maintain calm and patience.

In compliance with retired IAS Officer M.R. Sreenivasa Murthy's One-Man Committee Report, that has been submitted to the Government, the Chief Minister agreed to clear 14-month salary arrears and revise the salary from Apr. 1, 2026, as per the assurance given to trade union leaders.

However, the Members of Joint Action Committee, rejected the CM's proposal, stating that, they would not compromise with their demand to clear arrears of 38 months and revise the salary applicable since Jan. 1, 2024.

State Govt. not co-operating in implementation of Centre's Schemes: MP

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that the Union Government has introduced many schemes for the benefit of farmers, MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar alleged that the State Congress Government was not co-operating with the Centre on implementation of farmer programmes.

MP Yaduveer Wadiyar addressing a press meet at the BJP Office in Chamarajapuram on Wednesday as MLA T.S. Srivatsa, City BJP President L. Nagendra, District BJP President K.N. Subbanna, former MLA B. Harshavardhan and others look on.

Addressing a press meet at the BJP Office in Chamarajapuram here on Wednesday, Yaduveer said that the Centre has come up with many farmer programmes in the last 10 years. Noting that the Union Budget size which was just Rs.77,000 crore in 2013 has now risen to Rs.1.37 lakh crore, he said the Union Budget focuses much on agriculture.

"The State Government has not carried out a proper survey of crop and property loss in coastal and malnad districts caused by rains and floods. Also, the State Government has failed in providing adequate relief to the affected families. The Congress Government has failed in proper distribution of NDRF and SDRF funds to the victims", he maintained.

Alleging that the Congress Government has stopped giving Rs. 4,000 to farmers, which scheme (Kisan Samman Yojana) was introduced by the previous BJP Government in the State, the MP said that the Centre has sanctioned Rs. 93,000 crore to the State under Krishi Sinchai Yojana. But the State Government is not extending co-operation for the successful implementation of the scheme, he contended and added that the Siddaramaiah Government was also not extending support for the Centre's plans for promotion of food processing Industries.

Responding to Congress allegations that the Centre was discriminating Karnataka in allotment of funds and GST reimbursements, the MP said that it is unfortunate that Siddaramaiah chose to skip the crucial NITI Ayog meeting, which was attended by most of the Chief Ministers. Our CM should have attended this meeting as it would have been of much help to the State, he added.

Highlighting the schemes introduced by the Centre for the welfare of farmers, he said that the Centre has hiked the Minimum Support Price for paddy from Rs. 1.443 to Rs. 2.203 per quintal. Also, there is a possibility of misuse of social media for creating disturbances and spreading fake news, which the citizens should be aware of and be alert. Also, the organisers should see that banners and buntings are removed after the celebration," the SP said adding that steps will be taken for ensuring peace and harmony.

Hunsur Taluk Hanumantotsava Samiti President V.N. Das said that Hanuma Jayanti celebrations will be held at Hunsur for 3-days from Dec. 2. D.K. Shivakumar supporters offer prayers at Chamundi Hill temple

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MTY&DM)- Over 30 supporters of Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar today offered special prayers to Goddess Chamundeshwari atop Chamundi Hill, seeking the blessings of the deity for Shivakumar to become the Chief Minister.

The fans later pulled the Silver Chariot of the temple to some distance by keeping a portrait of the DKS in the front and sought divine intervention for their leader to occupy the top post.

Speaking on the occasion, KPCC Member G. Srinath Babu maintained that Shivakumar has shown his administrative skills in taking forward the State on the right path of development.

Arguing that the Deputy CM has displayed his foresight for the growth of the State, he said that DKS had played a vital role in bringing back the Congress to power with 136 seats in the 2023 Assembly polls. The Congress High Command should consider this fact and make Shivakumar the CM of Karnataka for the second half of the current tenure of the Assembly, he noted.

Shivakumar's fans G. Raghavendra, Harish Gowda, S.N. Rajesh, Shashank Gowda, Chandru, Kiran, Prasanna Kumar, Dinesh, Vinod, Mathews, Harish Naidu, Shyla, Shobha Rao, Sujatha Bhat, Asha, Sundari, Ravikala, Sahi Geetha, Deepa and others were present.

Power sharing agreement

Vishwanath dares Siddu to swear before Goddess Chamundeshwari

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (BLU&TRR)- MLC A.H. Vishwanath has dared CM Siddaramaiah to swear before Goddess Chamundeshwari that there was no agreement of power sharing between him and Dy. CM D.K. Shivakumar (DKS).

Addressing a press meet at Jaladarshini Guest House this morning, he said "There is a lot internal rift in the Congress and twists in State politics. Conflicts within the party and between parties have become a common thing now. But caste conflicts are not acceptable as they damage social fabric of the society. Siddaramaiah is directly responsible for the present political chaos. Though Siddaramaiah is hailed as an influential AHINDA leader, it was former PM and JD(S) supremo H.D. Deve Gowda, who shaped his political career by making him as the Finance Minister in 1994."

"Several Vokkaliga leaders like Kempeeregowda and G.T. Devegowda contributed to Siddaramaiah's victory when he contested as an MLA for the first time in1983 from Chamundeshwari Constituency. But now, Siddaramaiah is betraying the same Vokkaligas by refusing to hand over power to DKS," he said.

Tigress captured near Hanagod in Hunsur Division

Forest Department launches search to rescue four cubs

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MTY&KS)- A tigress was captured near Gowdanakatte village, Hanagod Hobli in Hunsur Division in the wee hours of today.

It is learnt that yesterday the tigress tried to attack two villagers, who had gone to spray fertiliser for the maize crop. After managing to escape from the attack, the villagers demanded the capture of the tigress. Following this, the Forest staff began conducting combing operation and spotted the tigress.

While monitoring its movements using a thermal drone, the Forest staff saw four cubs along with it.

Soon, camp elephants Ajay, Prashantha, Sugreeva and Harsha were brought to the spot following which Veterinarians Dr. Adarsh and Dr. Waseem Mirza, sharpshooters Ranjan and Akram, mounted on the four elephants and began combing operation along with other staff.

At about 4 am today, the tigress was spotted and Ranjan, sitting atop elephant Ajay fired a tranquilliser dart which struck the tigress immobilising it. As soon as the tigress fell, the Forest staff secured it with a net and placed it inside a cage.

The cage with the tigress shifted to a safe place, where the Veterinarians examined its health and later shifted to Mysuru Zoo's Chamundi Wildlife Rescue and Rehabilitation Centre at Korgalli.

Meanwhile, the Forest Department has launched a search operation to trace and rescue the four tiger cubs.

Man allegedly stabbed at Rajivnagar

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (KS) - A day after a youth was stabbed to death in Udayagiri Police limits on Wednesday morning, a man was allegedly stabbed in Mysuru South Police limits yesterday.

The incident took place in front of Premium Service Apartment, close to Rajivnagar Outer-Ring Road (ORR) last night. The injured has been identified as 35-year-old Sabeer, who is undergoing treatment at a hospital.

It is learnt that a few youths were fighting in front of the apartment and Sabeer went near them to enquire, during which he was reportedly stabbed by unidentified persons, who fled from the spot soon after, according to the statement given by Sabeer to the Police.

As hundreds of people had assembled in front of the hospital, traffic was disrupted for sometime till Police arrived and dispersed the crowd.

Sources in the hospital said that injured Sabeer is out of danger.

Public angry

Meanwhile, the angry public said that sale and consumption of narcotic substances is rampant in Udayagiri and Rajivnagar, which was resulting in such incidents.

The public also complained that post dusk, menace of those under the influence of liquor increases at Shanthinagar, Ghousianagar, Azeez Sait Double Road and parts of Ring Road. A few shops in these areas are open throughout the night which has become a den for these drunkards. The Police, despite knowing all this, have not bothered to take action, they alleged.

Anti-Rowdy Squad toothless

City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar has re-launched the Anti-Rowdy Squad by deploying Police personnel from City Crime Branch and personnel from various Police Stations across the city, to control anti-social elements, but still such incidents are taking place undeterred. This only shows the inefficiency of the Police, public alleged and added that though the Police have been conducting raids and seizing narcotic substances in every Police Station limits, no such raids were conducted in this region.

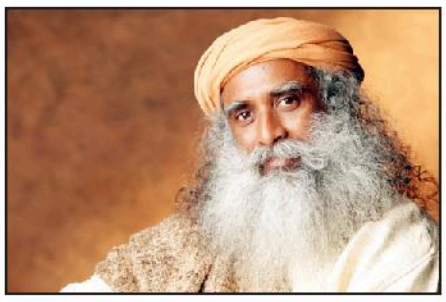
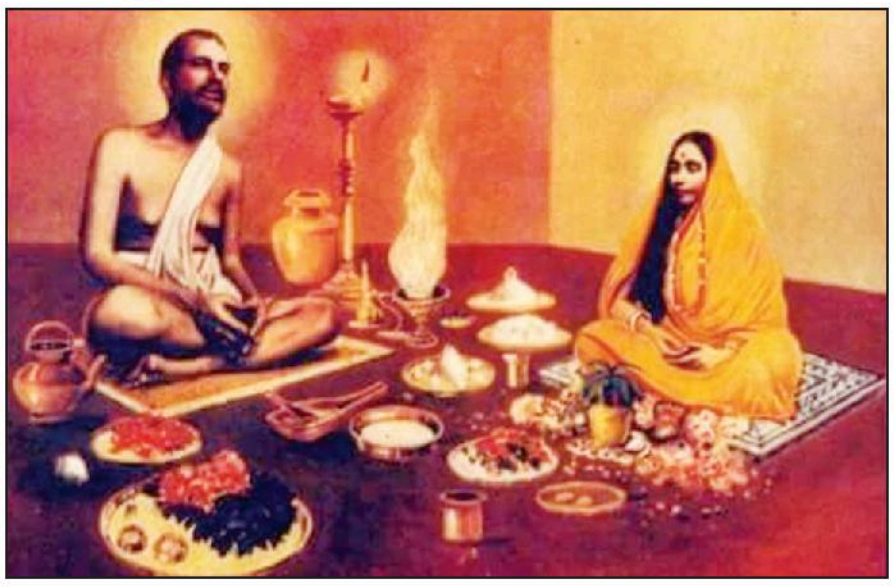
MYSTIC'S MUSINGS



By Sadhguru - Founder, Isha Foundation

Holding on to the body



If your energies raise beyond a certain pitch, this physical body cannot hold the energies anymore. Only people who have understood or who have mastery over the physical system can hold on to the system. Generally it is only people who are on the path of kriya yoga who can hold on to the body.

Kriya yoga is the yoga of transforming your inner energies. Kriya yogis can hold on to the body because they understand the mechanics and know all the tricks of the body. Other people who attain to this level of intensity either through action, devotion or awareness cannot hold on to the body. They have to leave the body. You will never see them again. Ninety-nine percent of Enlightened Beings leave the body at the moment of Enlightenment. Otherwise, to hold on to the body, you will have to play many tricks.

Ramakrishna Paramahamsa was a very crystallised consciousness, but it was always a struggle for him to retain the body. He was a very simple, uneducated man, but he lived in such a way that in his own lifetime, people really saw him as God and worshipped him. But he was mad about food.

He would be giving a spiritual discourse to his disciples and would say, 'Just wait, one minute.' Then he would go ask his wife, 'What's cooking today?' His wife Sarada used to feel ashamed, 'What is the problem? Even I am not thinking about food, why you? You are God for us, why are you like this?'

He said, 'That is ok, but what's cooking?' One day she felt so terribly ashamed of him that she told him, 'I am ashamed of you. Why are you just stuck to food like this?' Ramakrishna said, 'One day when you bring the plate of food, if I do not show any interest and look away, you must understand that I have only three days left.'

Almost six or seven years after this incident, on a particular day, Sarada brought Ramakrishna his lunch. He showed no interest and looked away from the food. Suddenly he was not interested in the food. Then Sarada broke down and cried; she knew only three days were left. He said, 'No point crying now. The time is up.'

So food was not a big deal for him, but he consciously created this desire continuously, to hold on to his body. Without a desire you cannot stay. If he closed his eyes, he would be gone so he constantly created a conscious desire for food — all the time making himself crazy about food. So once a person reaches a certain pitch of energy beyond a certain point, holding the body is a lot of drama, a lot of circus.

Doddalathur excavation brings Stone Age, Megalithic Age histories to fore

Mysuru, Nov. 28 (MK&BS)- As part of World Heritage Week, the five-day exhibition of Doddalathur Archaeological findings, organised by the Department of Studies in Ancient History and Archaeology, University of Mysore (UoM), in association with Mythic Society, Bengaluru, at the Department premises in Manasagangothri, which was to conclude today (Nov. 28), has been extended till Dec. 2. Public can visit the expo from 11 am to 4 pm.

The articles of archaeological importance that date back to the stone age and megalithic age, mainly four cists of 140 cm in length and remnants of urn burials, excavated at Doddalathur in Hanur taluk, Chamarajanagar district, have been kept on display, along with other articles.

The cynosure of the exhibition is an iron object, which is circular in shape with two loops on either sides, akin to an iron shield, with weapons like axe, arrow and a two-pronged sword, all dating back to 300 AD. The Hero Stones belonging to later years have also been preserved and kept on display for the history buffs.

The field work led by Dr. V. Shobha, Director, Department of Studies in Ancient History and Archaeology, was carried out from October 2024 to February 2025, with the funding of Mythic Society.

Dr. R.N. Kumaran (extreme right), Superintending Archaeologist, ASI, seen taking a look at the displays along with VC Prof. N.K. Lokanath, Dr. V. Shobha and others.

"A total of 13 burials, comprising stone and cairn circles, constructed with natural boulders of different diameters, were opened. Four contained cists or stone-slab chambers were found, and the rest were burials," she said. C.B. Patil, retired officer of Archaeological Survey of India (ASI), co-directed the excavation.

Dr. R.N. Kumaran, Superintending Archaeologist, ASI, inaugurated the event. Addressing the gathering, Dr. Kumaran, who currently heads the Excavation Branch-VI in Mysuru, said excavation is very much essential to understand human history, along with reading of inscriptions to dig into the facts surrounding civilisation and the knowledge of literature. Apart from Badami, Aihole and Pattadakal, which is declared as UNESCO World Heritage site, the local sites of importance carry historical significance. There is a need to study them, with the modern apparatus like Geographical Positioning System (GPS), survey, information collected from locals, coming in handy in identifying the site of excavation.

UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.K. Lokanath, who also spoke, said, the interest and curiosity, is vital to study the ancient history and archaeology, and also to visualise the past and future society. In this wake, Department of Studies in Folklore is being readied at a cost of Rs. 32 crore to collect and display materials of related importance. Likewise, the findings of Department of Studies in Ancient History and Archaeology, during excavations, should be kept on display.

Mythic Society President V. Nagaraj said, the study of excavation sites and materials of archaeological significance create a conducive environment for totality of the nation. The understanding over Brahmi literature being the core for studying all scripts has created a feeling of integrity.

Mythic Society Secretary Dr. S. Ravi and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Cornucopia

Pronunciation: kor-nuh-KOH-pee-uh (noun)
Meaning: A cornucopia, also known as a horn of plenty, is a curved, hollow goat's horn or similarly shaped receptacle (such as a horn-shaped basket) that is overflowing, especially with fruit and vegetables. The image of a cornucopia is commonly used as decoration and as a symbol of abundance, but the word cornucopia is today more often encountered in its metaphorical use referring to an overflowing abundance, or to a seemingly inexhaustible amount of something.
Origin: Cornucopia comes from the Late Latin phrase cornu copiae, which translates literally as "horn of plenty." A traditional staple of feasts, the cornucopia is believed to represent the horn of a goat from Greek mythology. According to legend, it was from this horn, which could be filled with whatever the owner wished, that the god Zeus was fed as an infant by his nurse, the nymph Amalthaea. Later, the horn was filled with flowers and fruits, and given as a present to Zeus. The filled horn (or a receptacle resembling it) has long served as a traditional symbol in art and decoration to suggest a store of abundance. The word first appeared in English in the early 16th century; a century later, it developed the figurative sense of "an overflowing supply."
Example: "It was rather dark in there. ... However, the counters and their cornucopia of offerings were brightly lit. Want chocolate bars? Nasal sprays? Gummy bears? Bath bombs? Tinctures? Vapes? Mints? Jellies? Peanut butter cups? Lemonade? Fruit punch?" —Marla Jo Fisher, The Orange County (California) Register, 1 Sept. 2025.

THE ODD WORD

Defenestration

The act of throwing someone out of a window.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Flip the bird

Meaning: When you say 'Flip the bird' you mean someone is making a rude, crude gesture by extending their middle finger.
Origin: The expression 'Flip the bird' originated in the 1860s, although the gesture it describes is much older, dating back to at least the 12th century.
Example: "I guess Joe is still mad; I saw him flip the bird at Dave."
